

Al-Buraimi University College

BUC 7th National Student Research Conference

“Fostering Innovative Research, Integrating Academic Practices”

(BUC-NSRC 2022)

Tuesday 20.12.2022

Al-Buraimi University College is pleased to announce submissions for the seventh national student research conference. This conference is a premier opportunity for undergraduate and postgraduate students to present papers, participate in discussions, and develop collaborations across different fields. Participants from a wide variety of disciplines can participate to explore future challenges and become familiar with the recent trends in multi-disciplinary research.

The conference will adopt a hybrid (virtual and in-person) format. Undergraduate and postgraduate students may submit proposals for virtual workshops or in-person panel presentations. Participants may attend both the virtual and in-person portions of the conference but may only present work in one session.
